

Our vision and values

We believe all children in Scotland should be supported, included, and listened to throughout their education.

Our mission

We share our knowledge and expertise to help children, young people, parents, carers and professionals:

- understand children's rights to support for learning in Scotland's schools, and
- work together to get the right support in place.

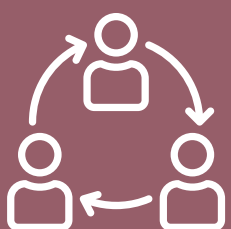

Our values

We seek to understand the experience of everyone we work with.

We treat everyone with equal respect and care.

We believe that working together gets the best outcome.

We are dedicated to providing high quality advice, information and service.

We are courageous champions of children's rights.
